

Digital Select™ POD

Print Smarter. Scale Further.

Print what you need when you need it.

What if you had the flexibility to print what you need, when you need it, without worrying about inventory costs or forecasting challenges – and have them produced in days, not weeks? Sheridan's proprietary POD offering, Digital Select™ makes this possible.

Digital Select™ at a Glance

- Digital printing powered by Sheridan Select™ for seamless automation.
- Flexible quantities — 1 to 2,500 copies.
- Dedicated service team for personalized support.
- Online ordering portal for easy, on-demand reprints and new titles.
- Integration with warehouse and eCommerce systems for fulfillment.

Built for the Zero-Inventory Era

Publishers are moving toward just-in-time and digital-first models — and Digital Select™ helps you get there. Reduce warehousing, keep every title available, and print what you need when you need it.

One Solution for Every Need

Digital Select doesn't stop at zero-inventory, it also provides solutions for publishers that want to:

- automate first printings of books and journals
- send a small number of books or issues to send to a conference on short notice
- fulfill print requests for online-only titles
- ensure titles are available in print when readers need them
- integrate your eCommerce storefront or warehouse
- realize a higher-service alternative to typical POD providers
- streamline ordering process while minimizing ordering costs

How It Works:

- Titles are imported into Sheridan Select™, Sheridan's proprietary print management system where they will become available for ordering at any time, from anywhere
- Place your order through the easy to navigate Sheridan Select web-to-print portal, or integrate your system with ours and sit back as rules-based automation fulfills orders automatically
- Books and journals are produced with expedited schedules on Sheridan's state-of-the-art digital presses with a defined range of print specifications to ensure consistency from one printing to the next
 - 3-5 working days for paperbacks with quantities up to 200
 - 9 working days for greater quantities up to 2,500

Our Guarantee:

- Sheridan Quality: Professional-grade print quality and finishing — no shortcuts.
- Personal Support: Real people who understand your titles, timelines, and goals.
- Proven Platform: Trusted automation powered by Sheridan Select™.
- Fast Turnaround: From file to fulfillment in days.

This service was designed with you in mind, to ensure that your titles are always available in print when you, and your readers, need them.
